

Holocaust Memorial Day Exeter 2018

Theme: The Power of Words

Sat 27th Jan
The Guildhall, High St, Exeter	10.00am – 4.00pm	Free Exhibition on the Holocaust and other genocides
The Mint Church, Fore Street, Exeter	6.00-8.00pm	Choral event: Brent singers, Cullompton Community College choir
Mon 29th Jan
The Guildhall, High St, Exeter	10.00 - 10.30am	Opening ceremony by the Lord Mayor of Exeter and representatives from Devon County Council, Exeter Cathedral and Devon SACRE, St Thomas school choir
	10.30am - 3.30pm	Free Exhibition on the Holocaust and other genocides
	10.30am-2.45pm	Human rights trail: a guided, reflective walk in central Exeter
	11.00am - 2.15pm	Showings of 'Porajmos' film: Nazi genocide of the Roma and Sinti (Gypsies) (Y9 + above) (Jury Room; please get in contact if wheelchair access is required)
	3.30 - 3.45pm	Closing Ceremony, Moments of Reflection & Candle Lighting led by the Jewish Community
St Stephen's Church, High Street, Exeter	10.45am - 12.15pm	Presentations of poetry, poems, prayers and stories from students from Devon schools
Southernhay URC, Exeter	12.30 - 1.30pm	Public talk: Surviving a Japanese POW camp in WW2 and the search for forgiveness: Hanneke Coates
Exeter Synagogue, Exeter	10am-12pm	30 minute guided visits
Thurs 1st Feb
Exeter Cathedral	7.00-9.00pm	Inherit the Truth: Anita Lasker-Wallfisch and Raphael Wallfisch.

All events are free and open to the public. For booking information, please contact Ed Pawson for details