

Prison FELLOWSHIP

“I was in prison and in a mess. Then I met Sam and started going to church and started a course called Sycamore Tree. At Chaplain’s Hour on a Wednesday evening a man called Steve came in to speak and he told us what his life had been like and how he’d let the Lord into it. One of the church volunteers prayed for me and it was like the best high I’d ever had. I asked Jesus into my life and my life turned round for the better.” Mark

“I was in prison and you visited me...”

Why should my church get involved?

As Christians we are called to reach out to those in prison, and to minister to those in your community.

We see local churches as important partners in our work. We physically can’t be based in every community across England and Wales to support the local prisons, but the church can and it is!

We need churches to stand with us in:

Prayer is extremely important to the ministry of Prison Fellowship; everything we do is rooted in prayer. Prayer changes lives!

Sow financially into the work so we can support more prisoners; transform their lives and those affected by crime.

Volunteers - we need churches to encourage their members to volunteer and support prisoners in their local prison through Prison Fellowships programmes.

Prison Fellowship's mission is to show Christ's love to prisoners by coming alongside them, praying and supporting them to change.

We do this through our network of volunteer members, and currently have over 1,700 members across England and Wales.

As a volunteer-driven organisation we seek through prayer and practical care to help, support and develop a Christian ministry to prisoners and their families.
