Sing to the Lord, praise his name;
proclaim his salvation day after day.
(Psalm 96)*

SONGS OF PRAISE

Let's make a big noise together!

Following the popularity of the united Songs of Praise service held last November in the Parish Church, the ministers of the town are arranging another one this year on Sunday, 22nd November at 6pm – to be held once again in the Parish Church and led by Rev Nick Evans. Representatives from each of the churches have been asked to choose a favourite hymn and say a few words about why that hymn is special to them.

We want this to be a really special service for the whole community and ask you to invite friends, neighbours, relatives, strangers...

Lots of people love to sing so let's see if we can fill the church and make a big noise!

There will be an opportunity to donate to Christian Aid's Burkina Faso project and refreshments will be served after the service.

LETTER FROM A MINISTER

What turbulent times we are in. The refugee crisis seems to have blown a hole in the very fabric of the cohesion of Europe. The impact of the Arab Spring promised much but sadly has largely engendered instability and suffering. Politicians are seen to be floundering; unsure of how to respond to the Syrian crisis. National borders open and close like traffic lights. Commentators describe wholesale despair and contradictory responses of generosity or fear. Sometimes the news reports are too distressing to watch, so what can be done, is there any hope?

I have tried to understand what has gone on but am aware that this is no easy task. Syria experienced a four-year drought prior to the uprising which meant many people lost their livelihoods on the land. A thirteen-year old boy from a family displaced by the drought was murdered by the government and this provided a flashpoint for this revolution. But now the six ethnic groups that comprise Syria have in addition seen the arrival of Isis and Hezbollah. International support of the various groups gives the conflict a "proxy war" edge. Indeed none of the main factions seem to run out of munitions, so candid suppliers such as Russia must be balanced by others that are more surreptitious. Here is a list of the conflicts as at the moment: government v opposition rebels; government v Isis; Kurds v Isis; Turks v Kurds; the west (bombing) v Isis; opposition rebels v Isis; Hezbollah supporting the government v the rebels and Isis. I suspect my analysis is inadequate and this is not a comprehensive thesis but it is illustrative of three things: Syria is in a huge mess, it will not sort quickly, but the problems it creates need attention now. Over four million refugees outside of Syria and a further six or seven million displaced within is a problem needing a global response.

My own response starts by remembering that Jesus was a refugee in Egypt. I want to respond personally with hospitality and generosity and plead for it to all. I like to think that when Britain has been generous in the past, for example to the Ugandan Asians, we have benefitted as a nation in the long run. I am glad of the funding of refugee camps, essential now, but this will never be the long-term answer. Indeed Lebanon, Jordan and Turkey are bearing the brunt of this burden. If by birth I had found myself in the situation of the refugees, I would no doubt be shouting "we are humans" as they do, and doing my best to seek a future away from conflict for my family. Meanwhile, I pray for world leaders to dry up the supplies of arms that only exacerbate the situation and seek for peace - however hard this is to create.

INTERFAITH SERVICE

An interfaith service will be held at the synagogue on Saturday 14th November at 10.30 a.m at Gifford Park Synagogue. The focus of the service will be on the common perspectives of the 3 Abrahamic faiths, i.e. Christianity, Islam and Judaism, on the story of Abraham and his descendants (we will be reading the story of Jacob and Esau from the Book of Genesis), and implications for modern times. However, we also wish to welcome to the synagogue, as on previous occasions, members of other faiths.

The service will be a Sabbath morning service led by Student Rabbi Naomi Goldman, with contributions from Rev. Paul Smith from the Christian community and Mr. Syed Mohseni from the Islamic community. It will be followed by light refreshments in keeping with the Sabbath morning tradition, and a golden opportunity to socialise and find out more about the synagogue if you wish.

This is an open invitation, and all are welcome. We would be very grateful if you could circulate this widely to your communities and contacts.

Kind regards
Lynda Gilbert
Interfaith Coordinator, Milton Keynes Jewish Community

CHRISTMAS BAZAAR

The Christmas Lights day (November 28th) is fast approaching and Newport Pagnell Parish is again planning for its Christmas Bazaar in the Parish Church. We'll be there all day with our usual stalls and some new ones as well. This year we are running a Silent Auction – a great opportunity to acquire some really original and special Christmas gifts/treats for someone.

Children from some of the local schools will be singing at various times, and tea, coffee and delicious home-baked cakes will be available throughout the day (plus mulled wine in the afternoon!). We are aiming to make the church a warm, welcoming place to come and enjoy some part of your trip to the Christmas Lights events.

And when the lights have been switched on, why not come back in and join us for some carol singing. It's a lovely way to end the day!

7.30 - 9.00 pm at The Ridgeway Centre, Featherstone Road, Wolverton Mill South MK12 5TH. An open discussion for thinking Christians with contributions by Fr. Allan Jones, Revd. Peter Ballantine and Sherry Gladwin

What are British values? How coherent are these values? Is the UK government right to promote them? Are they compatible with Christianity? Do they mark a shift away from historic Judaeo-Christian ethics? Should they be taught in school? Should they be taught in church? Is tolerance a Biblical value? What happens when secular values clash with Christian convictions? What takes precedence, British citizenship or the Kingdom of God? How did the early Church respond to the values of the Greco-Roman world? Is the promotion of British values a necessary antidote to extremism? Are religious liberties being compromised?

CTNP ECUMENICAL LENT GROUPS 2016
ADVANCE DATES FOR YOUR DIARY NOW!

Our Ministers support the principle of the various CTNP congregations getting together during Lent, to study together and learn from one another. As a change from the York courses we have opted to use two films for Lent 2016. The format will be one meeting to show a film and then, a week later, meeting together to talk about it. This will be repeated the following fortnight.

Each week there will be an afternoon meeting on Tuesdays at 2pm, held in the Westbury Grange Activities Room, Westbury Lane, and an evening meeting on Thursday evenings at 7.30pm at the URC.

To enable as many people to attend as possible, we are publishing the dates now. (Details of the films will follow later.)

Tues 16 Feb 2pm or Thurs 18 Feb 7.30pm for viewing Film 1
Tues 23 Feb 2pm or Thurs 25 Feb 7.30pm for talking about Film 1
Tues 1 March 2pm or Thurs 3 March 7.30pm for viewing Film 2
Tues 8 March 2pm or Thurs 10 March 7.30pm for talking about Film 2

You only attend one session each week, but each week you have the option of whether to attend the 2pm or the 7.30pm one.
