CONNECTIONS

April 2016

See! The winter is past; the rains are over and gone. Flowers appear on the earth; the season of spring has come, the cooing of doves is heard in our land.

[Song of Solomon 2: 11-12]

PROCEEDS FROM LENT LUNCHESES 2016

I am happy to announce the fantastic total profit to Christian Aid this year is

£2277.85

Many thanks to those who contributed homemade soup and to all who gave their time during the last 6 weeks to help achieve this excellent result. There was a great community spirit and it was pleasing to see people enjoying the social occasion. We had abundant offers of help from the churches of Newport Pagnell and also from people not connected to the churches.

Thanks also to everyone who came along, spent their money and supported us. We rely on you!

What would you do?

Suppose you had a disagreement with someone. Would you handle the situation differently depending whether that other person was your boss, your colleague, an acquaintance, a close friend, or a family member? Stop for a moment to think carefully about this. What if the disagreement rested on something you knew to be true, but which the other person wanted to see differently, or even worse, wanted you to act differently, to deny the truthful case?

What would you do?

Is this an unusual situation to be in? We can choose how much we make the other person feel good, or how much we might avoid trouble by minimising 'troublesome details' or avoiding the truth. It's the same when a politician uses 'plausible denial'. So where are you, in your day-to-day dealings, on the slippery slope between the whole truth, and a complete pack of lies?

Where did Jesus stand? What did Jesus do?

authorities of his day, Jesus always stuck to the whole truth. He told it how he knew it was, but with immense love, compassion and gentleness. There is, of course, a price for doing this, and we seem to understand this, by the way we try to dilute the pain we might otherwise feel by sticking too much to the truth.

If the truth is too threatening for the other party, and the other party is too powerful, we could be in real trouble—damage or lose a relationship, lose our job, or in a severe situation, lose our life. For us there is a risk calculation.

When Jesus met Pilate and faced this, there was no question, and he paid for it with his life, in the crucifixion.

It's a hard act to follow, but we have help in the living presence of the Risen Lord, Jesus The Christ. This is why Easter is so important!

HOLIDAY CLUB: 15-18 AUGUST 2016 CAN YOU HELP?

This is a four-day fun filled holiday club, for around 150 infant and junior school-aged children. We have a great time with people from all the churches and can share lunch daily. It is a highlight event for church children and reaches many others who never go to church. This year's theme, Guardians of Ancora, features great Bible stories within a fun-filled program. Check out the Scripture Union Holiday Club website.

Teams: Whatever your skills there's a role for you. If this is all new to you don't worry, we want to help and support you. We are all in this together. Roles include: teaching team leaders, apprentice helpers, drama, music, cooking, crèche, tidy-up people, practical helpers who cut things out etc.

What is helping like? The site is open from 8am so you can be as early as you like to set up each day. Children will be divided by age groups into groups of roughly 10. Each group will have a leader and helpers. Children will enjoy craft, teaching, refreshments in the groups. At other times we all gather together for teaching, games and fun led from the front. You'll be in good company. In the midst of serving the children, the team have a lot of fun. It's great to work together. At the end of the week you will have made new friends. There is a crèche to facilitate helpers with young children.

Diary dates:

15th -18th August: Holiday Club runs from 10am-12.30pm (with a clear up on the morning of Friday 19th).

Sunday July 3rd: Training meeting, 7-9pm at Lovat Hall. Here we bring you up to speed and you can meet your team, tour the venues and review our materials. We plan to create an amazing magical space in the hall with a library/museum feel to enchant the children with. Set up is Sunday 14th August 6-9pm.

To volunteer: fill in a recruitment form available from your church or from Lovat Hall (01908 618818 jack.walker@talk21.com).

Everyone: PRAYER PLEASE, AS MUCH AS POSSIBLE!

QUIZ NIGHT AT BROOKLANDS
Saturday, 9th April at 7pm

Gather a team together and sharpen your wits on Bill Watson's latest quiz. Enjoy a convivial evening and make a donation to Christian Aid's 'Food for Change' project in Burkina Faso to help poor families trying to eke out a living on the edge of the Sahara Desert.

Christian Aid week will be 15th to 21st May and we are always looking for more door-to-door collectors to enable us to cover as many streets in the town as possible during that week. On Saturday, 14th May there will be a coffee morning at the URC and a Christian Aid collection on the High Street.

Jesus calls us to love our neighbour as ourselves, and not just the ones next door or at the end of the street. Christian Aid Week unites over 20,000 churches to put this love into action.

If you are willing to help, or would like more information, please speak to Pat Parker, telephone 01908 610837.

To mark the start of Christian Aid week, and to commission the collectors, there will be a united service on Sunday, 15th May at 6pm in the United Reformed Church. The service will be led by Revd Jenny Mills. Everyone welcome!

Council Elections Hustings

Following the success of the two 'hustings' meetings held before the General Election last year, Mission Partnership has organised two similar meetings ahead of the Milton Keynes Council Elections on 5 May. The meetings will be held as follows:

- Tuesday 12 April 2016 at 7.30pm at Whaddon Way Church, Bletchley
- Thursday 14 April 2016 at 7.30pm at Christ Church Stantonbury

Representatives of the major political parties contesting the elections have been invited to attend. If you want to submit questions in advance for either of these meetings, please forward them to John Moffoot (moffoot285@btinternet.com) by Friday 8 April.
