[*] The Board is responsible for the legal running of the Project, for ensuring that it operates within its objectives and for producing accounts and reports as required by Company and Charity Law. The Project's Constitution requires that there be at least 6 Directors, but there is no maximum. Each year the two longest serving Directors must retire, but may stand for re-election. Members of the Board during the previous year have been: Gill Buckeridge (Chair), Martin Digby (Vice Chair), Jenni Bevington (Secretary), Lynsey Arnott – now retired, Lydia and Andrew Cranston (Line Managers), Pam Kingsley (Communications) and Alistair Nurden (co-opted Treasurer).
