From Michael McDonnell:

Dear Friends,

World Day of Prayer.

Private prayer is great and of course an essential part of our prayer life. Praying with others is different and includes sharing, companionship, mutual encouragement, teamwork and unity. This kind of prayer has its own special power. Different again is a World Day of Prayer when, with joy, we connect with our sisters and brothers in every corner of the World. We share their traumas and bring to the Lord their plights. We know too, they are praying for us. Our prayers of adoration, thanksgiving and petition will make a difference to their lives and to our own.

This year's World Day of Prayer has been put together by women in Zimbabwe and will be celebrated on Friday 6th March, at St James' Church, Rowledge, commencing at 10:30 a.m. It will be a joyful occasion.

With warm regards

Michael

CHURCHES ARE INVITED TO JOIN IN THE GRAND FINALE OF FARNHAM WALKING FESTIVAL – Ray Brown of Farnham Lions Club is inviting churches to contact him if they would like to take part in this special event. The Lions Club has been asked to organise the final walk of the Farnham Walking Festival on Sunday 7 June. This will involve groups such as schools, local clubs and churches, walking in from the villages around Farnham to join in the festivities at Gostrey Meadow.

Groups would arrive at approximately 2:30 p.m. The old bowling green area will be reserved for the walkers to sit and eat the picnics that they bring with them. The walkers can then join the Music in Park crowds on the other side of the river. The event is to be covered by the Farnham Town Council Insurance. If this is of interest to your Church groups please contact Ray Brown on the email below to receive more information including suggested routes. ray.brown@farnhamlions.org.uk

NEW ALPHA COURSE – Alastair Emblem writes: “In 2019, St Joan of Arc Catholic Church ran two Alpha courses concurrently and had 69 participants, mainly from our own congregation. This year we are encouraging people to think and pray about inviting family and friends who may have drifted away from faith, or anyone who is searching for a spiritual meaning in life. We are following the Alpha principle of welcoming everyone, with the ultimate aim of helping them to receive the Good News of Jesus Christ and to enter (or deepen) a personal relationship with Him. We do not intend to proselytise people into the Catholic Church: if they already have a background of another denomination, we will direct them back to that church. If your church is not running Alpha this year, and you know of people who would appreciate participating, they would be very welcome to come along.

The initial “taster” session with dinner and sign up will be on Sunday March 29th at 7:00 p.m in St Joan’s Centre. You can find further details of the course by following this link:

We are pleased to report that the Farnham Mayor is attending and the Revd Jane Walker will be officiating. The committee look forward to welcoming all to this colourful service from Zimbabwe to enjoy the music and quiet reflection, seeking love, peace & reconciliation - not only in our own lives & communities, but also in Zimbabwean lives too.
