Why do a York Course?

Tens of thousands of group members choose a York Course each year:

“I like the format. Listening to the speakers on the CD helped to clarify my own thoughts as well as inspiring me with new ideas... The questions were challenging and well thought out. Altogether a very enjoyable course.”

“York Courses are by far and away the best thought-out house-group material that I have come across. Excellent notes, a really useful range of questions, and stimulating audio contributions.”

“Along with thousands of other Christians I have benefited greatly from participation in York Courses over the past few years, mainly as a group leader.”

ALL YOU NEED TO RUN A SUCCESSFUL COURSE

BUILD ON THE ROCK (Matt. 7.24) starts by looking at faith and doubt. Is it wrong – or is it normal and healthy – for a Christian to have doubts? Is there any evidence for a God who loves us? We hear from many witnesses. At the heart of a Christian answer stands Jesus himself. We consider his 'strange and beautiful story' and reflect upon his teaching, his death, his resurrection and his continuing significance.

Five sessions:

- (1) Believing and doubting
- (2) Jesus - our teacher
- (3) Jesus - our saviour
- (4) Jesus - conqueror of death
- (5) Jesus - Lord and brother

THE COURSE BOOKLET is written by best-selling author, Canon John Young. Each of the five sessions ends with a range of questions designed to stimulate lively group discussion. Ideally each group member should have a personal copy of the booklet.

THE CD contains five 14-minute radio-style starters for group discussion, with former BBC broadcaster Canon Simon Stanley putting questions to the participants: Bishop Richard Chartres, Dr Paula Gooder and Revd Joel Edwards. Each session closes with a Reflection by Methodist minister David Gamble. Former Archbishop of York, Dr David Hope, introduces the course.

THE TRANSCRIPT booklet is a complete record of the words spoken on the CD, and includes CD track numbers. Especially useful for group leaders as they prepare, it can also help group members to feel more confident about joining in the discussion; to catch up on missed sessions; and to go over the recorded material at leisure.

Save money by buying our special CD Taster Pack with 1 course booklet, 1 CD and 1 transcript booklet – everything the Group Leader needs to assess, and then to prepare for the new course. Costs £17.65 including free 2nd class p & p in UK (worth £19.88 – a saving of £2.23)

NEW 4-session course for Advent 2014 (or any season) comprising course booklet, CD and transcript features Bishop David Wilbourne in relaxed conversation with Canon Simon Stanley – with contributions from a variety of churchgoers. Together they consider how Christ can surprise us and meet us in four distinct contexts: in family and community; in ourselves; in prayer; and in approaches to the end of life.

EXPECTING CHRIST
